

Do you know the difference between civic and democratic participation?

Civic participation includes:

- The ability to start or sign petitions
- Taking part in peaceful, legal protest
- Being involved in community organising

Democratic participation includes:

- Registering to vote, if eligible
- Voting in local, regional and national elections
- Taking part in deliberative and participatory democracy

Check out the London Democracy Hub at registertovote.london for more info and political literacy resources!